

Placement Learning at Harper Adams

All courses include a 12 month placement in a commercial environment

Gain practical, interpersonal & business skills for the workplace

Opportunity to earn & learn

Student Benefits

Link latest theory with current practice

Provide experience on which to base career plans

Harper Adams seeks to develop long-term relationships with placement employers and has strong links with a large number of employers across a range of sectors. Each subject area has a Placement Manager responsible for advising students on suitable placements, supporting students with placement applications and liaising with industry.

Up to date knowledge of latest commercial developments, new technology & IT skills

Early graduate selection

Employer Benefits

New ideas & fresh enthusiasm

Enable specific project work to be undertaken

Cost effective additional staff resource

Access to latest research through closer links with the College

Future Developments

- ◆ Harper@Work initiative to enhance student support whilst studying on placement
- ◆ Guidance for students and employers to help cope with disability in the work place
- ◆ Development and promotion of sector-wide good practice for placements in the rural economy

Placement learning improves graduate employability

www.harper-adams.ac.uk

Placement enquiries 01952 815409

Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning