2.1 The Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Goods and/or Services from the Supplier in accordance with these Conditions.

2.2 The Order shall be deemed to be accepted on the earlier of:

(a) the Supplier issuing written acceptance of the Order; or

(b) any act by the Supplier consistent with fulfilling the Order, at which point and on which date the Contract shall come into existence (Commencement Date).

2.3 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Supplier seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.

2.4 All of these Conditions shall apply to the supply of both Goods and Services except where the application to one or the other is specified.

3. SUPPLY OF GOODS

3.1 The Supplier shall ensure that the Goods shall:

(a) Correspond with their description and any applicable Goods Specification;

4.5 The Supplier shall not deliver the Goods in instalments without the Customer's prior written consent. Where it is agreed that the Goods are delivered by instalments, they may be invoiced and paid for separately. However, failure by the Supplier to deliver any one instalment on time or at all or any defect in an instalment shall entitle the Customer to the remedies set out in clause 6.1.

4.6 Title and risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.

6.2 If the Goods are not delivered by the applicable date, the Customer may, at its option, claim or deduct 5 per cent of the price of the Goods for each week's delay in delivery by way of liquidated damages, up to a maximum of 50 per cent of the total price of the Goods. If the Customer exercises its rights under this clause 6.2 it shall not be entitled to any of the remedies set out in clause 6.1 in respect of the Goods' late delivery.

6.3 If the Supplier has delivered Goods that do not comply with the undertakings set out in clause 3.1, then, without limiting its other rights or remedies, the Customer shall have one or more of the following rights, whether or not it has accepted the Goods:

7. CUSTOMER'S OBLIGATIONS

The Customer shall:

(a) provide the Supplier with reasonable access at reasonable times to the Customer's premises for the purpose of providing the Services;

(b) provide such information as the Supplier may reasonably request for the provision of the Services and the Customer considers reasonably necessary for the purpose of providing the Services.

8. CHARGES AND PAYMENT

8.1 The price for the Goods:

(a) shall be the price set out in the Order, or if no price is quoted, the price set out in the Supplier's published price list in force at the Commencement Date; and

(b) shall be inclusive of the costs of packaging, insurance and carriage of the Goods, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Customer. No extra charges shall be effective unless agreed in writing and signed by the Customer.

8.2 The charges for the Services shall be set out in the Order, and shall be the full and exclusive remuneration of the Supplier in respect of the performance of the Services. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Customer, the charges shall include every cost and expense of the Supplier directly or indirectly incurred in connection with the performance of the Services.

8.3 In respect of Goods, the Supplier shall invoice the Customer on or at any time after completion of delivery. In respect of Services, the Supplier shall invoice the Customer on completion of the Services. 8.5 All amounts payable by the Customer under the Contract are exclusive of amounts in respect of valued added tax chargeable from time to time (VAT). Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by the Supplier to the Customer, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Supplier, pay to the Supplier such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Goods and/or Services at the same time as payment is due for the supply of the Goods and/or Services.

8.6 If a party fails to make any payment due to the other party under the Contract by the due date for payment, then the defaulting party shall pay interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 4% per annum above Lloyds Banking Group base rate from time to time. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis from the due date until the date of actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment. The defaulting party shall pay the interest together with the overdue amount. This clause shall not apply to payments that the defaulting party disputes in good faith.

8.7 The Supplier shall maintain complete and accurate records of the time spent and materials used by the Supplier in providing the Services, and the Supplier shall allow the Customer to inspect such records at all reasonable times on request.

8.8 The Customer may at any time, without limiting any of its other rights or remedies, set off any liability of the Supplier to the Customer against any liability of the Customer to the Supplier, whether either liability is present or future, liquidated or un-liquidated, and whether or not either liability arises under the Contract.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

9.1 In respect of the Goods and any goods that are transferred to the Customer as part of the Services under this Contract, including without limitation the Deliverables or any part of them, the Supplier warrants that it has full clear and unencumbered title to all such items, and that at the date of delivery of such items to the Customer, it will have full and unrestricted rights to sell and transfer all such items to the Customer.

9.2 The Supplier maintains exclusive rights, title and interest in Goods and Deliverables developed or produced by the Supplier prior to the date of this contract and delivered to the Customer but not in so far as the Customer provides Goods Specification and/or Service Specification; all Intellectual Property Rights arising out of the Goods Specification and/or Service Specification will remain the exclusive rights of the Customer including the Goods and Deliverables arising therefrom.

9.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the Supplier assigns to the Customer, with full title guarantee and free from all third party rights, all Intellectual Property Rights in the Service Specification and/or Goods Specification and any Goods or Deliverables arising out of the Goods Specification and/or Service Specification

9.4 The Supplier shall obtain waivers of all moral rights in the products, including for the avoidance of doubt the Deliverables, of the Services to which any individual is now or may be at any future time entitled under Chapter IV of Part I of the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988 or any similar provisions of law in any jurisdiction.

9.5 The Supplier shall, promptly at the Customer's request, do (or procure to be done) all such further acts and things and the execution of all such other documents as the Customer may from time to time require for the purpose of securing for the Customer the full benefit of the Contract, including all right, title and interest in and to the Intellectual Property Rights assigned to the Customer in accordance with clause 9.2 and 9.3

9.6 All Customer Materials are the exclusive property of the Customer.

10. INDEMNITY

10.1 The Supplier shall keep the Customer indemnified against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including but not limited to any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other [reasonable] professional costs and expenses) suffered incurred by the Customer as a result of or in connection with:

(a) any claim made against the Customer for actual or alleged infringement of a third party's intellectual property rights arising out of, or in connection with, the manufacture, supply or use of the Goods, or receipt, use or supply of the Services, to the extent that the claim is attributable to the acts or omissions of the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors;

(b) any claim made against the Customer by a third party for death, personal injury or damage to property arising out of, or in connection with, defects in Goods, to the extent that the defects in the Goods are attributable to the acts or omissions of the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors; and

(c) any claim made against the Customer by a third party arising out of or in connection with the supply of the Goods or the Services, to the extent that such claim arises out of the breach, negligent performance or failure or delay in performance of the Contract by the Supplier, its employees, agents or subcontractors.

10.2 This clause 10 shall survive termination of the Contract.

10.3 The Supplier's liability under or in connection with this indemnity shall be limited to £5 million. This limit shall apply however that liability arises, including a liability arising by breach of contract, arising by tort (including the tort of negligence) or arising by breach of statutory duty. Provided that this clause 10 shall not exclude or limit the Supplier's liability for death or personal injury caused by the Supplier's negligence; or fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

11. CODES OF CONDUCT

(a) In accordance with the Customer's Codes of Ethical Purchasing Practice every practicable effort should be made to ensure that goods and services received, by the Customer regardless of value, originate from a source which is ethically sound. An ethically sound source is defined as:

(i) A source where every practicable measure has been taken to ensure that the environment is not unduly or unnecessarily harmed. Environmental harm includes, but is not limited to, the questionable use and disposal of harsh pollutants, the unnecessary use of biohazards, depletion of natural resources and the irreparable destruction of natural environments. Any activity breaching national or international environmental law will automatically be deemed as being unnecessary harm. This includes, but is not limited to, fly-tipping, the use of untested and uncertified bio-technology and incorrect disposal of waste products.

(ii) A source whereby international workplace norms, as defined by the International Labour Organisation conventions and the UN's Universal Declaration of Human Rights, have been rigorously applied. This includes, but is not limited to, an outright bar on the use of child or forced labour, provision of a safe and healthy workplace presenting no immediate hazards to its employees and the payment of at least the minimum wage, or a fair representation of the prevailing industry wage (whichever is the higher), of all employees.

(iii) A source whereby all employees, as well as all other persons with whom the company has dealings in its normal course of business, are treated fairly on the basis of merit regardless of age, disability, family responsibilities, gender, HIV status, mental health problems, nationality, race, religion, socio-economic background sexual orientation or transsexualism.

(b) It is vital that these practices are adopted by the Supplier in respect of the Supplier's business as well as throughout the supply chain and that every reasonable endeavour is taken by the Supplier to ensure that Goods and Services from an unethical source do not exist within the supply chain.

(c) It is the Suppliers responsibility for controlling its own supply chain and to ensure compliance with the Customer's Codes of Ethical Purchasing Practice by any subsequent supplier of goods and services that are used by the Supplier when performing its obligations under this Agreement

(d) Should the Customer be under any doubt that the Goods or services received, or scheduled to be received, are compliant with its codes of Ethical Purchasing Practice, the Customer reserves the right to suspend the Contract awaiting investigation. Any investigation shall not relieve the Supplier of its obligations under this Contract and any additional costs reasonably so incurred shall be at the Supplier's expense. Following investigation, should the Customer, at its absolute discretion, be under any doubt that Goods and services conform with its codes of practice, the Customer shall be entitled to cancel the Order.

(e) In the event of cancellation under this condition the Supplier shall promptly repay any monies paid under the Contract without any retention or offset whatsoever. Cancellation of the Order under this condition shall not affect any other rights that the Customer may have.

12. ANTI-BRIBERY AND ANTI-CORRUPTION

(a) The Supplier will comply with all applicable laws, regulations, codes and sanctions relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the Bribery Act 2010 and the Supplier will not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 6 of the Bribery Act 2010 if such activity, practice or conduct had been carried out in the UK. The Supplier should also act in accordance with the Customer's Policy on the Prevention of Bribery and Corruption as amended from time to time.

(b) The Customer at its absolute discretion, reserves the right to terminate the Contract where an inducement has been offered/accepted and also where a matter has been declared after taking place which would make it inappropriate for the Customer to continue with the Contract.

13. ANTI-SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

In performing its obligations under the Contract, the Supplier shall:

(a) comply with all applicable anti-slavery and human trafficking laws, statutes, regulations and codes from time to time in force including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015; and

(b) maintain throughout the term of this Contract its own policies and procedures to ensure its compliance; and

(c) not engage in any activity, practice or conduct that would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 4, of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 if such activity, practice or conduct were carried out in the UK; and

(d) require that each of its direct subcontractors and suppliers shall comply with all applicable anti-slavery and human trafficking laws, statutes, regulations and codes from time to time in force.

14. INSURANCE

During the term of the Contract and for a period of 6 years thereafter, the Supplier shall maintain in force, with a reputable insurance company, professional indemnity insurance, product liability insurance and public liability insurance to cover the liabilities that may arise under or in connection with the Contract, and shall, on the Customer's request, produce both the insurance certificate giving details of cover and the receipt for the current year's premium in respect of each insurance.

15.3 Any Personal Data belonging to the Customer or the Customer's employees, agents or subcontractors including the Customer Materials which come into the possession of the Supplier at any time, shall be subject to the protections afforded to Personal Data under the Data protection Laws

15.4 The Parties agree that where the sharing of Personal Data is necessary to carry out the Contract, the Parties will enter into a separate agreement relating to the sharing of Personal Data (a Data Sharing Agreement) which shall set out the rights, responsibilities and liabilities of the Parties in relation to Personal Data

15.5 The Supplier agrees to Process Personal Data in accordance with the Data Protection Policy of the Customer, a copy of which is available at harper-adams.ac.uk

15.6 The Supplier shall (where deemed necessary by the Customer) prepare a Data Protection Impact Assessment prior to entering into a Data Sharing Agreement with the Customer.

15.7 The Supplier shall not transfer any Personal Data belonging to the Customer outside of the EEA without seeking the Customer's prior written consent.

15.8 The Supplier shall notify the Customer immediately if it receives any communication from a Data Subject in the exercise of Data Subject Rights relating to Personal Data provided by the Customer to the Supplier.

17.1 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, either the Customer or the Supplier may terminate the Contract:

(a) in respect of the supply of Services, by giving the Supplier 1 months' written notice.

17.2 In any of the circumstances in these Conditions in which a party may terminate the Contract, where both Goods and Services are supplied, that party may terminate the Contract in respect of the Goods, or in respect of the Services, and the Contract shall continue in respect of the remaining supply.

17.3 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, either party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other if:

(b) The Supplier may not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the prior written consent of the Customer.

20.2 Notices.

(a) Any notice or other communication given to a party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing, addressed to that party at its registered office (if it is a company) or its principal place of business (in any other case) or such other address as that party may have specified to the other party in writing in accordance with this clause, and shall be delivered personally, or sent by pre-paid first class post or other next working day delivery service, commercial courier, fax or e-mail.

(b) A notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been received: if delivered personally, when left at the address referred to in clause 20.2(a); if sent by pre-paid first class post or other next working day delivery service, at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting; if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed; or, if sent by fax or e-mail, one Business Day after transmission.

(c) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action.

20.3 Severance. If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract.

20.4 Waiver. A waiver of any right or remedy under the Contract or law is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

20.5 No partnership or agency. Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the parties, nor constitute either party the agent of the other for any purpose. Neither party shall have authority to act as agent for, or to bind, the other party in any way.

20.6 Third parties. A person who is not a party to the Contract shall not have any rights to enforce its terms.

20.7 Variation. Except as set out in these Conditions, no variation of the Contract, including the introduction of any additional terms and conditions, shall be effective unless it is agreed in writing and signed by the Customer.

20.8 Governing law. The Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

20.9 Jurisdiction. Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this agreement or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).
